

THE FAQs OF TITLE INSURANCE FOR HOMEBUYERS

For most of us, a home is the largest investment we'll make in our lives. To help you understand how owner's title insurance protects your property, here are answers to common questions.

What is Title?

Title is your right to own or use your property. Title also establishes any limitations on those rights.

What is a Title Search?

A title search is an early step in the homebuying process to uncover issues that could limit your rights to the property. If a title issue is discovered, we will take care of it.

What is Title Insurance?

If you're buying a home, title insurance is a policy that protects your investment and property rights.

There are two different types of title insurance: an owner's policy and a lender's policy.

1. An owner's policy is the best way to protect your property rights. Customarily the seller pays for this policy.
2. A lender's policy is usually required by the lender and protects the lender's financial interests. The buyer typically pays for this policy.

Why is Owner's Title Insurance Important?

Owner's title insurance protects your investment in your property from certain future legal claims regarding ownership of your property. For a one-time fee, you and your heirs* receive coverage for as long as you own your home. The owner's policy also covers potential legal fees and court costs for settling claims covered by your policy.

What Does Owner's Title Insurance Cover?

Sometimes undiscoverable defects can come up after the title search. Under an owner's title insurance policy, you are protected against certain undiscovered errors in the title.

Title issues may include:

- Outstanding mortgages and judgments, or liens against the property
- Pending legal action against the property that could affect you
- Unknown heir of a previous owner who is claiming ownership of the property

Unforeseeable title claims include:

- Forgery: making a false document
 - For example, the seller misrepresents the identity of the person who sold the property.
- Fraud: deception to achieve unfair gain
 - For example, someone steals your identity and either sells your house without your knowledge or consent, or takes out a second mortgage on the property and walks away with the money.
- Clerical error: inconsistent paperwork and historical records
 - For example, an unforeseeable discrepancy in the property or fence line can cause confusion in ownership rights.

What Does Owner's Title Insurance Cost?

The one-time payment for owner's title insurance is low relative to the value of your home. A typical title insurance policy costs around 0.5% of the home's purchase price.

How Long am I Covered?

Your owner's insurance policy lasts for as long as you or your heirs* own your property. Your life will change over time, but your peace of mind never will.

What Happens at Closing?

Closing is the final step in executing the homebuying transaction. It is the process that allows the transfer of ownership to occur. Upon completion of the closing process, you get the keys to your home!
